

Who are we currently looking for?

Specialist in pediatrics and adolescent medicine (f/m/d)

Location: Vienna

Working hours: Full-time/part-time immediately or by arrangement

Your profile:

- Specialist in pediatrics and adolescent medicine / entry in the Austrian medical register required
- Experience in the areas of general pediatrics and neonatology
- Good knowledge of German (C1), any other language is welcome
- High teamwork and communication skills

Your tasks:

- Independent medical care for outpatients
- Preventive examinations, parent-child pass examinations
- Advisory work in the area of nutrition (overweight, eating disorders), infant and breastfeeding advice, behavioral problems, celiac disease...

We offer:

- Dynamic and team-oriented company
- Interesting, varied activities with personal responsibility
- Flexible working on a full-time or part-time basis – your work-life balance and individual needs are important to us! No night shifts!
- Very good public transport connections
- Training and further education opportunities
- Employment with 14 monthly salaries
- Appropriate remuneration for this position of €140.000 gross per year on a full-time basis
(After deducting taxes, this results in a monthly salary of approx. €5,796.79).
Depending on experience and qualifications, there is a willingness to pay more.

If you are interested in this exciting task, please send

- your comprehensive application documents in German with photo immediately to:
bewerbung@kinderambulatorium.com
- With the subject “Pediatrics and Adolescent Medicine”
- If you have any questions, please call +43 660 5426721 (Fr. Lea Walinski, human resources department)